[Report]

Welcome Party for International Students Enrolled in autumn

On Octorber 10 2019, the welcome party for international students enrolled in autumn was held at the International Exchange Salon. There was an introduction of new international students and celebrated their new departure. A total of 73 students and faculty members, including 50 international students, participated and deepened the exchange. International volunteer group Science Buddy has prepared handmade dishes for this day.

