Orientation for New International Students in Spring 2024

On April 5, the orientation for new international students enrolled in Spring was held at the International Exchange Salon. 32 people attended, including 18 new students, faculty members and members of international exchange group, Science Buddy. After a welcome speech by Professor FUNAHASHI, a chairperson of the SISC, faculty members explained in English about a support system for international students in our department, various precautions in daily life, and administrative procedures.

Welcome Party for International Students Enrolled in Spring 2024

On April 19, a welcome party for international students enrolled in Spring was held at the International Exchange Salon. A total of 48 students and faculty members, including 25 international students, participated. They had a good time through mini games, supper, and free form talks. We hope that they will have deeper interactions through various events and make their student life more meaningful.
