Orientation for New International Students in Fall 2024

On September 30th, the orientation for new international students enrolled in the Fall was held at the International Exchange Salon. 39 people attended, including 32 new students, faculty members, and members of the international exchange group, Science Buddy. After a welcome speech by Professor FUNAHASHI, a chairperson of the SISC, faculty members explained in English about a support system for international students in our department, various precautions in daily life, and administrative procedures.

Welcome Party for International Students Enrolled in Fall 2024

On October 18th, a welcome party for international students enrolled in Fall was held at the International Exchange Salon. A total of 39 students and an administrative staff, including 29 international students, participated. They introduced their home countries to each other and chatted with delicious sushi and other meals in a good mood.

GSS bus tour for international students 2024

International students and Science Buddy members had a bus tour to Wakayama Castle and Momijidani Garden, and had Lacquerware Maki-e Hands-on experience on November 5th. Although it was still too early for the autumn leaves, students learned about the history of Wakayama Castle, and enjoyed their first Maki-e experience. They spent a satisfying day away from their daily research life.
