Orientation for New International Students in Fall 2025

On September 29th, the orientation for new international students enrolled in the Fall was held at the International Exchange Salon. 40 people attended, including 27 new students, faculty members, and members of the international exchange group, Science Buddy. After a welcome speech by Professor KOSHINO, a chairperson of the IPC, faculty members explained in English about a support system for international students in our department, various precautions in daily life, and administrative procedures.

Welcome Party for International Students Enrolled in Fall 2025

On October 17th, a welcome party for international students enrolled in Fall was held at the International Exchange Salon. A total of 58 students and an administrative staff, including 43 international students, participated. Students enjoyed light snacks and quizzes while chatting and having a great time. We hope to continue fostering connections through various events and make their student lives even more meaningful.

GSS bus tour for international students 2025

On a sunny day in November, a bus tour to Awaji Island and Tokushima Prefecture was held.

At Awaji Island's 'Uzuno Michi,' we admired the magnificent whirlpools and the uniquely beautiful Japanese scenery. In Tokushima, we enjoyed a performance of the famous 'Awa Odori' dance and even had the chance to try dancing ourselves. This provided a valuable opportunity to deepen understanding of Japanese culture through traditional dance. The students took a break from their daily research lives and spent a fulfilling day together.
