

【Report】

Quiz Competition Online

In January 2021, Science Buddy hosted its first online event.

International students returning to their home countries, such as Singapore and the Philippines, were also able to participate.

There were various kinds of quizzes, and we formed a team and played against each other.

Students participated from different places, however, we had so much fun!

